

Mission Hill Family Estate Unveils Artist Line-up for August 2011 Summer Concert Series
The Canadian Tenors and Chris Isaak light up the Okanagan Valley in the winery's outdoor amphitheatre

The Mission Hill Family Estate Concert Series returns with two captivating live music events this summer: The Canadian Tenors, August 13; and international recording artist, Chris Isaak, August 21.

Situated on a prominent hill rising above the Okanagan Valley, with majestic mountains and scenic lakes creating the perfect backdrop, guests can soak up a gorgeous summer evening of music, wine and cuisine at one of Canada's premiere concert locations.

With the creation of the outdoor amphitheatre, Proprietor Anthony von Mandl, a strong proponent of the arts, created a unique opportunity to enjoy live performances in an unrivalled setting. 2011 marks the third instalment of the summer concerts, with each season attracting new fans.

Back by popular demand for their second consecutive year, The Tenors will entertain guests with an intimate performance at Mission Hill as one of only a few Canadian shows in 2011. After last year's sold out tour of Canada, The Tenors are focusing on dates in the US, including a performance at the Kennedy Center and their debut at Carnegie Hall, as well as an international tour of China. They will perform songs from their classic repertoire plus new materials from their upcoming album to be released this fall. The audience at Mission Hill will experience their powerful voices within the acoustically vibrant amphitheatre venue.

Chris Isaak became a hit on the Billboard charts and earned widespread fame with his album, Heart Shaped World. An accomplished musician and actor, Isaak continues to win over audiences at every turn. Supporting his latest album "Mr. Lucky," the August performance will celebrate his first ever concert in the Okanagan Valley.

"We are thrilled to welcome two incredibly talented and diverse acts to the winery this summer," says von Mandl. "We at Mission Hill Family Estate could not be more delighted to host them."

Tickets for both shows go on sale Thursday, April 21 - via SelectYourTickets.com (insert link) - with The Canadian Tenors starting at $110 and Chris Isaak starting at $99.
